We are also joined today by Hetty Nanor a Community Volunteering Project Officer at Hambleton Community Action.

Hetty works as part of the volunteering team, co-ordinating, carrying out research and managing volunteering projects and is an advocate for inclusion and enablement in volunteering.

She is currently building a website that has useful resources on supported volunteering approaches to the wider voluntary sector in and across North Yorkshire.

She also chairs a quarterly meeting for a network of volunteering co-ordinators to identify best practice.

5 December

Hambleton Community Action, Northallerton

As we head towards the end of the year, we thought we would look back at 2024 as well as forward to 2025 as we explore what volunteering in North Yorkshire looks like.

We will also learn about the key role HCA plays in Northallerton and beyond as well as what their plans are for 2025.

As it's Christmas I'm sure there may be some extra sparkle and glitter as well as a Christmas Jumper or two.

30th January & 6th February – Managing Volunteers

Online

What makes an effective Volunteer Co-ordinator? What are the key responsibilities of the role? How can you ensure effective recruitment and induction of volunteers?

The training is broken up into four sessions:

- Session 1: Good practice in involving volunteers
- Session 2: Reaching and recruiting volunteers
- Session 3: Supporting and developing volunteers
- Session 4: Celebrating the impact of volunteers

The two sessions will run from 9.30 to 12.30pm. You are advised to attend both.
