Hate Crime Awareness and Hate Crime Champions training session 14th October 2025 at 10:00 am at Harrogate Civic Centre, Saint Luke's Mount, Harrogate, England

As part of Hate Crime Awareness Week 2025 we are pleased to be offering a Hate Crime Awareness and Hate Crime Champions session on 14th October 2025 to practitioners who want to learn more about hate crime, its impact victims and our wider community and how we can support those who are experiencing hate crime daily.

The accredited session will cover the following areas:

- Hate Crime Awareness: delivered by North Yorkshire Police who will explain what a hate crime is, the impact of hate on victims and the wider community, the barriers to reporting, means of reporting and support services available.
- Hate Crime Community Champions: At the end of the Hate Crime Awareness training session, there will be an appeal for volunteers to take their commitment a step further and become a Hate Crime Community Champion through this accredited training. This session will focus on how champions can raise awareness within their local community and places of work. Community Champions will receive a certificate confirming their completion of the training.

Both parts of this training are mandatory for those wishing to become Community Champions within your organisation or the community you work with.

If you are interested in learning more about hate crime and how you can help those who may be experiencing hate crime, then this is the event for you.
